

BEAUCLERC WINS WASHINGTON CUP

Ironsides, the Favorite, Gets Place, but Several Lengths Behind.

WASHINGTON, November 28.—Before an immense Thanksgiving Day crowd, Beauclerc, at 5 to 1, with Swain up, easily won the tenth Washington cup at two and a quarter miles. Ironsides, the odds-on favorite, secured the place many lengths behind Beauclerc. The fourth junior steeplechase for three-year-olds resulted in a close three-horse finish. Economy won, but the race was given to Sandy Creeker on a claim of foul. Summary: First race—five furlongs—Loudoun Light (12 to 1) first, Thistlebale (7 to 10) second, Diebold (evens) third, Time 1:18. (Thistlebale finished third, but disqualified for fouling.) Second race—five and a half furlongs—Bellefleur (evens) first, Apple Today (2 to 1) second, Laughing Eyes (7 to 3) third, Time 1:10. Third race—the junior steeplechase—about two and a half miles—Sandy Creeker (11 to 10) first, Monkey Puzzle (21 to 2) second, Lizzie Flat (7 to 10) third, Time 5:11. Fourth race—steeplechase—about two miles—Navajo (8 to 5) first, Yama Christy (16 to 5) second, Alamosa (7 to 1) third, Time 5:11. Fifth race—the tenth Washington cup—two and a quarter miles—Beauclerc (5 to 1) first, Ironsides (12 to 5) second, Right Royal (10 to 1) third, Time 2:24. Sixth race—handicap, one mile and seventy yards—Cliff Turner (12 to 1) first, Alauda (8 to 5) second, Live Wire (3 to 5) third, Time 1:45.4. Seventh race—handicap, one mile and a sixteenth—old course—Dancy Bird (7 to 2) first, Tony Bonero (30 to 5) second, Campaigner (2 to 1) third, Time 1:51.

CANTAWAY IS WINNER.

Little Lighter, a $25 Purchase Wins Rich Thanksgiving Handicap.

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 28.—Little Lighter, a colt which was sold here for $25 last spring, won the rich Thanksgiving handicap from a good field of mud-larks. In the betting Plantland ruled favorite at all times, and was backed down from 5 to 3 and 2 to 1 at post time. The field was sent away with fault off in front, and Plantland right at his heels. Plantland cut when the head of the stretch was reached, and Faust fell back beaten. Plantland then forged to the front, and was winning easily, when Jockey Delby brought Little Lighter up with rush, and won by a length. Summary: First race—five furlongs—selling—Blue Ban (12 to 5) first, Florida Glen (15 to 1) second, Silver Brook (7 to 2) third, Time 1:05.4. Second race—six furlongs—Hughes (10 to 1) first, Stella Land (7 to 10) second, Alvir (8 to 1) third, Time 1:20.4. Third race—five furlongs—selling—Marbles (3 to 2) first, Miss Delaney (5 to 1) second, Rustle (12 to 2) third, Time 1:03.3. Fourth race—mile and a sixteenth—Thanksgiving handicap—Little Lighter (5 to 1) first, Plantland (8 to 5) second, Dasheday (7 to 1) third, Time 1:51.2. Fifth race—five and a half furlongs—Platoon (11 to 5) first, Gambirius (10 to 1) second, Sally Preston (8 to 1) third, Time 1:11.5. Sixth race—mile—Granada (4 to 5) first, Sister Polly (12 to 1) second, Conville (7 to 10) third, Time 1:30.2.5.

and held the next two attempts at the line. Atkins kicked across the goal and Feuerstine touched the ball back. The ball was brought to the twenty-five-yard line and kicked to Louthan. On a delayed pass Walter made four yards, Louthan eight, Lankford six. Thraves thrown for a loss. Lankford gained six, making it first down. The ball was then carried by Louthan through W. and M.'s line for twenty-five yards. Atkins missed a field goal from the twenty-five-yard line. Dovel then kicked to Louthan on the thirty-five-yard line. Then, by tackle runs and delayed passes, the ball was carried to W. and M.'s forty-yard line. By a forward pass to Wright twenty yards was gained. Thraves made ten more. Again Atkins missed a prayer try for field goal.

Dovel kicked from his twenty-five-yard line to Richmond's thirty-five-yard line. By end runs and onside kicks the ball was again worked to W. and M.'s twenty-yard line and lost to them on downs. W. and M. kicked to center of field. By a punting tactic, with a twenty-five-yard run by Louthan, the ball was carried to W. and M.'s ten-yard line. Lankford gained two, then Walter took it over for a touchdown. Atkins kicked goal. W. and M. chose to kick to Richmond. Walter caught the ball on his ten-yard line and carried it through the entire W. and M. team for a touchdown—ten yards straight. Atkins kicked goal.

From this time on it was only a question of how large the score Richmond would pile up.

Richmond's team was too eager, and in the next five minutes were penalized forty-five yards for being off-side and for holding.

Richmond attempted the forward pass four times, three times successfully. W. and M. only attempted it once, and failed that time.

Joynes and Feuerstine played spectacular ball, but with every man in Richmond's line charging, they could not gain consistently. Four times they worked fake kicks for five, ten, fifteen and twenty yards, but the gains were so scattered that they amounted to naught.

Time of halves, thirty-five minutes each. Referee, J. A. Massie, of Virginia. Umpire, Richard Armstrong, of Yale. Head linesman, Mr. King. Touchdown—Walter (5), Lankford (1), Louthan (1). Goals from touchdowns—Atkins (2). Goals missed, 2. Attendance, about 4,000.

No Disorder at Game.

Major Werner and the officers of the Richmond police force were being congratulated on the manner in which they handled the crowd at the football game yesterday afternoon. Captain Werner of the Second Division, was commended for his handling of a squad of twenty-five men, into which the football teams united would have been a large force. Besides those assigned to the work Major Werner was on the ground, as in fact was almost every officer who was off duty.

DEEP RUN HOUNDS LED FIELD OVER STIFF COUNTRY

The Deep Run Hounds met at the Reservoir yesterday morning and led on enthusiastic field over an eighteen mile run of stiff country. Gunnsdale, the Williams' property, Gruntyland, Ashburner's, Dumbarton and Mordecai's—a run that took in many fences, ditches and small creeks. Conditions were most favorable—ideal weather, footing on the whole good, riders splendidly mounted and no casualties to mar the day, though the hunter of Mr. Frank W. Christian, Jr., stepped in a bad hole, and both horse and rider went down. Mr. Christian instantly remounted and finished the run without feeling any bad effects from the fall.

Miss Fannie Crenshaw was the only lady to follow throughout the hunt. The hounds were mounted by Huntsman Clarence Hall, under the master, Mr. St. George Bryan. Those riding to hounds were Messrs. St. George Bryan, Overton, Grandon Young, on Red Hussar; James W. Graves on Kingsman; Robert C. Bryan on Grandeur; Arthur Anderson on Chorus; C. J. Joseph Anderson on Calpeper; Palmer Leigh on Brown Jug; Frank Vaughan on Creston; DeGratons on Holson on Syrus; Wilber Sydney on Black Eagle; F. W. Christian on Lady Alice, and Misses Fannie Crenshaw on Dowsell and Mary Butler on Sir Choseny.

Reception at Club. A delightful reception was held at the clubhouse after the hunt, attended by the smartest society people of the city. The ladies receiving were: Messdames Joseph E. Willard, John Shelton, William St. George Bryan, C. C. Buckney and Misses Fannie Crenshaw, Mary Butler and Alice Doyle. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. John Landstreet, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ellington, Misses Posie Meredith, Katie Meredith, Virginia Whiteley, O'Keefe (of Tennessee), Page Willard, Allen Potts, Carlton McKenzie, Dr. Pratt, of Fredericksburg; Dr.

WILL HAVE BANQUET

Church Hill Doctors to Hold Annual Meeting Soon. The Church Hill Medical Society met last night at the home of Dr. Ramon D. Garcin, Twenty-seventh and Broad Streets. The principal paper read was presented by Dr. Clifton Miller on "Treatment of Acute Inflammation of the Middle Ear." Dr. Clifton Miller and Dr. B. A. Ford were appointed a committee to arrange for the annual banquet of the society to be held some time in December. They will report to the society at the next meeting, which will be held in the second week of December. At this meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Interest Growing in Immature.

Interest is growing in the revival services at Immanuel Baptist Church. The church was crowded last night, and Rev. Mr. Elmer's sermon on prayer produced a profound impression. There were two conversions, and much interest was manifested.

MIDDLESEX HUNT HAS GREAT SPORT

Distinguished Field Follows English Hounds in Spirited Run.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEESBURG, Va., November 28.—The Middlesex Hunt Club of Massachusetts met their English pack of hounds today at Outlands, the country home of William Corcoran, Esq., near Leesburg. A Henry Higginson, master, led the field. The pack was cast at 10 o'clock near the Outlands entrance, and the start was made by many who followed the chase for a short distance.

The weather was fine for the hounds; they worked well and kept close together. Finding a second and routing a fox, the pack gave tongue and cleared the field across Outlands estate over adjoining farms. North, then southward through rough country intersected by small streams, fences and ditches, they went till the fox was put in.

Riding to hounds as guests of the club were Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon, Postmaster-General Meyer, both of whom have hunting stables in Leesburg; Clarence Moore, of Washington, D. C.; Gist Blair, of Washington, D. C.; C. B. Harmon, of Wood, Harmon & Co., New York City; Mrs. Gibson, niece of Thomas Nelson Page, of Washington, D. C.; Julian I. Chamberlain, of Boston; Mrs. Langdon, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Dora H. Henderson, of Clarke county; E. B. White, of Selma; Misses Alexander and Huel, Miss Swart, W. C. Purdie, of Orleans; A. M. Chester, Jr., George C. Carter, Westmoreland Davis and Mrs. Davis and others.

UNITE IN THANKSGIVING

Notable Celebration at Exposition, With Fine Addresses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, Va., November 28.—Twenty thousand people spent Thanksgiving Day at the Jamestown Exposition to-day, joining in the great interdenominational religious services in the Auditorium, and loyally cheering the patriotic sentiments and expressions of gratitude for his manifold blessings in the addresses of Bishop Galloway, Monsignor O'Connell and Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore.

The feature of the meeting was the address of Bishop Galloway, who declared that patriotism is a passion as deep as the sea, that it is as sacred as the prayers, and that the ballot is as holy as prayer. Great addresses, breathing thanksgiving to God, urging love of country and purity of character, were made by Monsignor O'Connell, of Washington, and Dr. Moore, of Richmond. The musical features were superb.

In the afternoon Monsignor O'Connell was the guest of Colonel and Mrs. James A. Humphries at a Thanksgiving dinner in the Illinois State Building.

FLAG FOR SCHOOL

Interesting Program Rendered at Ridge Church Yesterday.

The exercises incident to the presentation of a flag by the Junior Order United American Mechanics to the Ridge Church School, in Henrico county, yesterday were interesting and impressive. The exercises were interspersed with music, which was furnished by a special orchestra from Richmond, assisted by Miss Davis.

The erection of this school marks a great forward step in the centralizing of the schools of the county, and its success is largely due to the zeal of Mr. J. B. Badger, who acts as secretary, and to the efforts of the children. One of the children received most of the charge of shot in his shoulders, and may not recover. The women and the other child were only slightly injured.

FOUR INJURED BY GUN

Two Women and Two Children Shot While Preparing Dinner.

FRANKLIN, Neb., November 28.—While preparing Thanksgiving dinner Mrs. Barnes and two children were injured by the accidental discharge of a shotgun, which was knocked down in the corner of the kitchen. One of the children received most of the charge of shot in his shoulders, and may not recover. The women and the other child were only slightly injured.

Saw His Team Play.

Mr. George L. Cunningham, of Cunningham, Pa., who is a student at the University of North Carolina, was among those who came to Richmond for yesterday's football game. Mr. Cunningham was one of the line-men, and thoroughly enjoyed the game, except the result.
